Both the Chronological Tables and the Notes are fuller. A new feature has been introduced in a theme for discussion at the close of each chapter that may be found helpful to study circles and Chautauqua societies. This has also been introduced in the recently issued Modern Jewish History. The author expresses his grateful indebtedness to Dr. David de Sola Pool for a most careful reading of the manuscript and for many corrections and suggestions; also to Mr. Philip Cowen for the aid rendered in collecting the illustrations. The author has availed himself of writings that have appeared on this epoch...
