A LIFETIME LOVE AFFAIR

Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 236 pages. A Lifetime Love Affair At some point in our lives we have all felt the fire of love and the shatter of heartbreak. This intriguing romance depicts the lives of Carita and Douglas who are engulfed in love's flame only to be separated by the injustice of fate. Douglas knew Carita's characteristics of love and inspiration made her the exceptional woman in his life. He knew that her love and understanding would be the inspiration to an illuminating and prosperous future. He had promptly accepted never allowing danger or harm to prevail over her. He would always be her protector, her comfort, her everything. Without speaking any words and he understood that she belonged to him and him alone. Carita knew in that same instant that he was special and wonderful. He had the grace and charm of a truly gentle man and her body ached for his touch. The tenderness of his voice saying her name made her blood rush hot through her veins and she felt secure in his love for her, a love she had never known or experienced. It was whole, complete, and she felt totally protected from all past hurts and fears. Carita thought his return home would restore their passionate love; but the cruelty of jealousy and time detours their relationship for what seems to be a lifetime. Although their love for one another is never disregarded, and continues to remain a part of their very essences through a forty-year span; the embers of their love continued to burn interjecting one roller coaster ride after another. Although destiny will not be cheated it is not until a series of unfortunate circumstances occur that once again unite Carita and Douglas the couple separately experiences the travels of life...
