Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Correlation of Studies: Report of Sub-Committee of the Committee of Fifteen The undersigned Committee agrees upon the following report, each member reserving for himself the expression of his individual divergence from the opinion of the majority, by a statement appended to his signature, enumerating the points to which exception is taken and the grounds for them. I. Correlation of Studies. Your Committee understands by correlation of studies: 1. Logical order of topics and branches. First, the arrangement of topics in proper sequence in the course of study, in such a manner that each branch develops in an order suited to the natural and easy progress of the child, and so that each step is taken at the proper time to help his advance to the next step in the same branch, or to the next steps in other related branches of the course of study. The authors of this report uses the word Correlation in its generally accepted sense of reciprocal relations. The things here related are the studies in the school, and life in the social order. What are the mutual relations between these? Evidently those if science to art. The social order is the art of which the school studies are the science. The problem of the school is to so master these sciences that their application to the art of living shall be easy and natural. The life of the community is these school studies animated by will and touched with feeling. What is the value of each study in preparing for living in the civilization of which the child is a member? The full discussion of these of this report is...
