No attempt has been made to specialize the study in any one direction. The aim is rather to secure intelligent reading and thorough familiarity with the text of the plays and at the same time to aid effectively in the study of the drama as a form of literary art. Secondly, to aid in understanding the dramatic relation and significance of plot and counter-plot, of mingling tendencies, and forces. Thirdly, to aid readers in catching, in each scene and act the true significance of the characters that carry the action.
