Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Prospectus of the Maumee Valley Pioneer and Historical Association Was organized in Toledo in 1864. Its first President was General John E. Hunt, and its next was Peter Nevarre. Its membership was composed principally of the genuine pioneer element of the valley - composed of men and women who were foremost in bringing the wild home-land of the red man up to the beautiful valley we now behold - men and women whose lives, energies and virtues have developed this portion of God s country and made it so beautiful to behold and delightful to occupy. Annual reunions of the Association were regularly held, at which historical and patriotic addresses were delivered, memorial letters read and reminiscences recited, all of which were greatly enjoyed by the assembled patriotic people. Among the Association s most earnest and enthusiastic members were Morrison R. Waite, Emery D. Potter, D. W. H. Howard, Dennison B. Smith, Thomas Dunlap, Asher Cook, Wm. P. Edgerton and a host of others whose names are revered and are indelibly stamped on the history and the development of the Maumee Valley. These honored pioneer people have nearly all passed away, and it has been found that the results of a mere social organization will not bring about a much desired result, one which should be an essential feature of pioneer organizations, objects and works, viz., in the preserving of the valued records of past events, the marking of the graves of our honored dead and the caring for the grounds made sacred by their gallant achievements, and the deposit therein of their sainted dust.
