Mr. Robinson too saw the need of this office; and I misunderstand him very much, if he would have modelled his parish schools according to this plan, without being himself this active superintendant. I serving the recognised division of parishes, and placing each portion under the superintendance of the incumbent. The Sunday schools of St. Mary s parish contained many children; received liberal support from the vicar and from the congregation, and were diligently inspected and instructed. But Mr. Robinson s time was so fully occupied on the Sunday, that he could do little more than see that they had instructors and supervisors, and regulate such of their concerns as were within the controul of a treasurer and monthly committee. The Benevolent Society is...
