C. : National Park Service, Social Science Program, 1997 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)55128372 Subject: Virgin Islands National Park (V. I.) Excerpt: . . . Looking to the Future of Virgin Islands National Park 11 A key part of the visitor experience consists of visiting the newly expanded Cruz Bay Visitor Center. Within this facil-ity, many kinds of historical and cultural programs are pre-sented regularly. The park has included the local St. John community in creat-ing the new Visitor Center, and developing its exhibits and programs. Individual St. John citizens as well as community organizations such as Friends of Virgin Islands National Park are involved with the park staff in providing services at this new visitor center. Virgin Islands National Park has engaged the local business community in offering quality merchandise and services, in utilizing local craftsmanship and labor, and in contributing a unique flavor to the parks overall visitor experience. St. John residents find their visitor experience enjoyable and easy. They use the new Visitor Center, beaches, trails and other features of the park frequently. Hence, the visitor experience for both the tourist and local visitor at Virgin Islands National Park is exceptional. Education At Virgin Islands National Park, education includes both formal and informal kinds of learning. Education about Virgin Islands National Park takes place in the local schools, during a visit to the park, and in different ways. Virgin Islands National Park has an ongoing and varied environmental education program. The program serves many kinds of people - local citizens of all ages, tourists (including cruise ship visitors), government officials, school teachers, university students, scientists and others. This item ships from La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
