Then our Brothers planted, not a tiny seed, but a real tree that bore fruit and invited us to transplant our little nursling to their orchard. The dream is coming true and the prayers are being answered. Another dream is awaiting realization. That what will be needed to make this Hospital not only a thing of beauty, but a joy forever, shall be a free will offering from our Indiana O. E. S. Chapters. Masonic Home Day is rapidly drawing near. Let us make November fifth for the year 1915 memorable for generous giving for this object. Give not of necessity or grudgingly, for God loveth a cheerful giver. As we journey from point to point of our emblematic Star each lesson is one--not of self love or self aggrandizement,...
