We do not anticipate that this method of handling business is going to pay any considerable amount under the cost of delivery by horses and wagon, but will enable us to satisfy our trade by reaching the outskirts of the city, where considerable building is now being done, without the delays necessary when we are depending entirely upon horses in hot weather. The hesitation in business felt in other places is also felt in Rockford, according to Mr. Parsons, but there is more or less residence building going on. A few municipal improvements in the way of paving and sewer work is under way, and as this puts more or less money into...
